Family Law

Divorce and Separation Divorces are emotional and often traumatic events. We strive to provide caring and comprehensive representation for people who are in a divorce or separation situation. Divorces which involve a business can dramatically complicate spousal and child support, property settlement, and tax issues. We represent many small to medium-sized businesses and are well-qualified to handle these difficult issues.

Prenuptial Agreements Prenuptial agreements are one of the most effective ways of preserving your assets and ensuring that those assets are directed in accordance with your wishes, through clear and binding agreements.

Adoption

We can assist you in all of these family law areas: Divorce (dissolution of marriage) and separation; alimony; child support, custody and adoption; pre-marital agreements; paternity; decree modification; property division; no-fault divorce and dissolution; income tax issues; retirement plan issues and life insurance issues.
